

The Intellectual Property Society of Australia and New Zealand

Creative Commons: What IP Practitioners Need to Know

- Creative Commons copyright licences have arrived in New Zealand.
- What exactly are they?
- What exactly do they do?
- Are they a threat to copyright owners?
- What clients may use them?

Andrew Matangi is a Consultant with the Wellington office of Buddle Findlay. He has had a close involvement with the Creative Commons project in NZ and will provide the answers.

AUCKLAND MEETING: Date: Wednesday, 25 February 2009
 Time: 5.30 pm
 Venue: Bell Gully, Level 22, 48 Shortland Street
 Cost: $20 members, $25 non members

WELLINGTON MEETING: Date: Thursday, 26 February 2009
 Time: 5.30 pm
 Venue: A J Park, Level 6, Huddart Parker Building, Post Office Square
 Cost: $20 members, $25 non members

AUCKLAND: RSVP by Monday 23 February 2009

Alison Koerselman, c/- Andrew Brown's Chambers, PO Box 2815, Shortland Street, Auckland
Phone (09) 366 6139, Fax (09) 366 6140
Email: alison@andrewbrown.co.nz

WELLINGTON: RSVP by Wednesday 25 February 2009

Lorraine Bond, A J Park, PO Box 949, Wellington
Phone: (04) 473 8278, Fax: (04) 472 3358
Email: lorraine.bond@ajpark.com