

The Intellectual Property Society of Australia and New Zealand

Generously supported by:

present:

Alison Brimelow in Conversation

Alison Brimelow CBE
President, European Patent Office

Alison Brimelow CBE is the President of the European Patent Office. Alison is in Australia to present the 2010 Francis Gurry Lecture, at the Melbourne Law School on 1 March, on the topic "Not seeing the wood for the trees: Is the patent system still fit for purpose?" Alison has kindly agreed to travel to Wellington for a lunch presentation. This is a unique opportunity to hear from, and engage with, Alison in an informal discussion.

DATE: Tuesday 23 February 2010

TIME: 12.00 pm (An informal light lunch will be served)

VENUE: Offices of Bell Gully
HP Tower
Level 21
171 Featherston Street
Wellington

COST: $25 members, $30 non members

WELLINGTON: RSVP by Friday 19 February 2010
Lorraine Bond, A J Park, PO Box 949, Wellington, Phone: (04) 473 8278, Fax: (04) 472 3358,
Email: lorraine.bond@ajpark.com