Topic: Interim Injunctions in IP cases in New Zealand

Speaker: Kevin Glover, Barrister, Shortland Chambers, Auckland
Kevin Glover will be presenting a seminar on interim injunctions in IP cases in New Zealand, focusing on the principles with reference to recent cases. He will also discuss alternatives, strategic considerations and practical tips.

Kevin is a barrister at Shortland Chambers in Auckland. He has practised in the area of commercial litigation since 2000 and is a recognised expert in intellectual property disputes. He appears regularly in the New Zealand courts at all levels on interim injunction, trial and appellate matters, as well as IPONZ hearings. Kevin is a contributing author to the leading text "Intellectual Property in New Zealand" (LexisNexis), including recently taking over responsibility for the trade marks section (with Rob Batty).
